2018

Small Stones Festival of the Arts • Grafton

About Small Stones

Welcome to the first edition of the Small Stones Festival of the Arts. Three regional arts organizations have joined forces to bring you a juried exhibition of the best art in the area, in an atmosphere as inspirational as the art itself.

Our name descends from the Nipmuc name for our home: Hassanamesit, or Place of Small Stones.

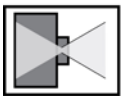

Art Call 2019

Be part of next year's festival – submit your work when our next Art Call goes live, tentatively scheduled for August 15, 2019.

The Small Stones Festival of the Arts

is a collaboration of the following organizations

Apple Tree Arts organized the Music Program for the Festival, and served as its fiscal sponsor.

Established in 1989, Apple Tree Arts' mission is to enrich the community through the arts, by providing educational, music and theatre arts programs for individuals of all ages.

The Blackstone Valley Art Association organized the painting and drawing portion of the Festival.

The BVAA is dedicated to the advancement of the arts and preservation of the finest artistic traditions by means of exhibitions, classes, and other activities, and to the development of friendly exchanges amongst artists and those interested in the arts.

The Worcester County Camera Club organized the photography portion of the Festival.

The WCCC is made up of photography enthusiasts who join together each month to share knowledge and camaraderie surrounding their common interest in the art and science of the camera.
